

At the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel, role

we are the frontline service provider for Queensland legislation, supporting government and democracy through legislative drafting and publishing.

vision

providing legislation for Queensland that is effective, accessible and of the highest standard.

Our guiding principles underpin everything we do:

Leadership

We support democracy by acting with integrity, transparency and accountability.

We are agile, flexible and responsive to the strategic imperatives of government.

We provide objective and balanced advice in providing legislative drafting services.

Innovation

We have a whole-of-government perspective in providing legislative drafting services.

We embrace new technologies and business models to ensure access to legislation and legislative information.

Inclusiveness

We value diversity and inclusivity and celebrate their benefits.

We consider the needs of all stakeholders in providing legislative drafting services and access to legislation.

Collaboration

We seek to understand our stakeholders, their expectations and aspirations.

We embrace new ways of working with our stakeholders to engage effectively with them and respond to their needs.

We value, respect and learn from each other and our stakeholders as we strive for mutual success.

Empowerment

We recognise the importance of our employees and value their contributions.

We provide a family-friendly and flexible workplace that fosters mutual respect, inclusion and open communication.

We ensure our people have the skills they need to do their jobs effectively.

The Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel works with all Queensland public sector agencies to draft legislation that supports the strategic direction of the Queensland government and delivers on the government's objectives for the community.
